HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

Summary of Rules and Regulations

Updated March 2021

1. Cars and Parking (see the parking policy attached)

- Parking is allowed only in assigned carports and marked spaces. No more than two vehicles per unit may be parked on the premises. Double parking, parking behind vehicles, by no parking signs, near mailboxes except where designated, or garbage bins is forbidden. Tenants are responsible for their guests to comply with these rules.
- All vehicles on the premises must be currently licensed and in running condition.
- ATV's (recreation vehicles), trailers, etc., are not allowed in the complex. Parking is scarce and must be limited to necessary "Family Vehicle" (as defined in the CC&Rs Section 4.11 pg. 11).
- Parking or driving on the lawn is not allowed.
- Auto repairs or maintenance are not allowed. In particular, draining of oil or other car fluids is strictly forbidden.
- No revving of engines or excessive noises on the premises.
- Parking areas may not be used for storage or for any other purpose than the parking of allowed vehicles.

2. Public Behavior

- No persons, except for association repairman, are allowed on the roofs of the townhomes or carports.
- Loud music or noise (loud means objectionable to neighbors) is not allowed at any time. Total quiet hours are from 10:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m. Unit owners are held responsible financially for any damage to the common areas caused by themselves, their tenants, guests or children.

3. Emergency

- The crawl space under building can only be entered from the closet under the stairs of the #2 Unit. In case of emergency, it may be necessary to enter this space to shut off utilities and save damage to other units. If the occupant is not available, the association is authorized to have a locksmith unlock #2 Unit in the building to allow entrance by the repairman.

4. Storage

- Carports are for the parking of cars, small trucks, motorcycles and bicycles only. Other items must be stored out of sight in the assigned storage units. Extra storage units are available from the association at current fee of $100.00 per year with a $75.00 deposit.
- Hazardous materials may not be stored anywhere.
